

Project Management of Database Administration

New business application? New Installation? Conversion? We can navigate you through the entire process from pre-work planning to implementation and follow-up maintenance.

Notes:

- Unless there is an in-house requirement on the project management software, MS Project is the preferred software to use.